Contributions to community benefit

As a non-for-profit pediatric health care provider, Children's Hospitals and Clinics of Minnesota provides a broad spectrum of benefits to communities we serve. These funds account for a measurable portion of the hospital's cost and help to promote healthy lifestyles, community development, health education and affordable access to care. In 2011, Children's invested nearly $100 million toward the health and well-being of children in its service area.
