

Amenorrhea

The absence of menstruation. Temporary amenorrhea may occur after stopping oral contraceptives. About 90% of all women who have ovulated regularly before taking the pill will have again begun to do so by three months after stopping oral contraceptives.