

Patient Admission: Provider to Provider Communication

Patient Admission: Provider to Provider Communication

- Admission handoffs must be communicated directly between the surgeon and the accepting physician or APP (via phone or secure text).
- Nursing staff and other support personnel should not be responsible for admission decisions.

