

Low Risk Neonatal Specialty Certification Review Seminar

Date: September 22 & 23, 2014

Time: 0800-1630

Location: Ramada Inn, Industrial Blvd, Minneapolis

This program provides a comprehensive and up-to-date review of low risk neonatal nursing based on the low risk neonatal nursing exam content outline. Participants receive information that will not only promote certification exam success, but will also enhance clinical nursing practice.

Presenters: Nurse Builders, Amy Jo Johnson, PhD, RNC-NIC

Target audience: Nurses working with low risk neonatal patients

Objectives:

- Identify resources for use in preparing for taking a low risk neonatal certification exam.
- Utilize strategies to promote certification exam success.
- Verbalize increased confidence in ability to pass a low risk neonatal certification exam.
- Recall information that will enhance individual nursing practice

Registration: <http://www.cvent.com/d/t4qdx6>

Successful Completion of the Continuing Education Activity

In order to receive contact-hour credit for this educational activity, you must:

- Be registered for this activity and sign in on the class roster;
- Be present at the beginning of the session; Remain until the end of the session
- Complete and submit the evaluation form before you leave at the conclusion.

Accreditation

Nurse Builders will provide 13.0 contact hours. Nurse builders is approved provider by the California Board of Registered Nursing, provider #15118; the Florida Board of Nursing for 13 contact hours. Nurse Builders is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the PA State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.