104 3L 2010 Domaine Serene Evenstad Reserve

This 2011 Domaine Serene Reserve Pinot Noir 3L will be the talk of your next party. It was named the #3 wine in the world by Wine Spectator in 2013. Described as "light and elegantly crafted, this iconic release is the textbook example of well-made cool-vintage Oregon Pinot Noir. Its aromatic, floral and silky. The tangy berry fruit is clean and ripe, though definitely on the lighter side. Pretty berry and cherry flavors are set against tart acids, with just a touch of milk chocolate from barrel aging."

Donor: Shannon Evenstad

Value: $500.00

105 2002 Constant Diamond Mountain 1.5L

Constant produces intense red wines that are destined to age, and this one is no exception. It drinks well now despite sizable tannins because it's so soft and sophisticated, but easily has the balance for the long haul. With its tremendously ripe black currant fruit, it should develop bottle complexities through 2015.

Value: $800.00

107 2002 Staglin Family Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

This amazing bottle received 95 points from Wine Spectator, which described it as, "a gorgeous wine, dark, dense and powerful, very rich and concentrated, featuring deep layers of mocha, blackberry, espresso, graphite and tobacco flavors. The long, persistent finish offers firm, ripe tannins that are softening. Slow to evolve, but has a long life ahead. 2002 California Cabernet blind retrospective (May 2012). Drink now through 2028."

715 Panama Hat

The original, genuine Panama Hat is soft, durable and a gentleman's hat. The Panama is not a style of hat as much as a culture. Hand woven in Ecuador with natural fibers of the Toquilla plant, they represent centuries of tradition in hat-making. Each hat can take a skillfull artisan more than 20 hours to weave. This hat is UPF 50+, so will keep you protected from the sun.
